You are cordially invited to attend the 4th National English Language Drama Festival in Veszprem to be held in Latinovits-Bujtor Studio Theater, Veszprem on Friday-Saturday, May 4-5, 2012.

Are you interested in English/American theater? Do you like theater in general? Do you like the English language? And what about both at the same time? If your answer is yes to any of the questions, this program is just for you!

The 2-day program offers the following: an excellent opportunity to

- practice your English language knowledge,
- learn while you are having fun,
- get to know the theater in English.

You can expect splendid plays from acknowledged high-school and adult theater groups playing in English and providing a real theater experience.

All theater lovers are welcome!

To download the detailed program flyer, go to

Read for Kids

The program is organized on Thursday afternoons paralelly with the English Conversation Club.

Our English-speaking volunteers read tales and stories for kids in 20-minute periods.

Are you interested in reading out for kids in English? Be a volunteer yourself, and register with the AC Veszprem.

Why is reading out in English important for kids?

- Kids can acquire any language easier.
- Their personalities and receptivity can be developed.
- You can get them to like reading at an early age.

All parents who wish to converse in English and kids interested in the language are welcome to join the programs.

Please register to the program in advance in the American Corner as our seating capacity is limited.

Time: Thursdays 16.50-17.45

Venue: American Corner, Video Room

Pre-Departure Orientation

Are you planning to travel to the US soon?

Have you been admitted to an American university?

Do you want to get interesting and useful information about American culture?

Come to our Pre-Departure Orientation in the American Corner and get advice from an EducationUSA Adviser and a Fulbright Teaching Assistant on how to prepare for a US travel, study or work experience.

Speakers:

James Tyler Askew – Fulbright Teaching Assistant

Judit Bertalan – EducationUSA Adviser
